TOM MIX IN REAL "THRILLER" TODAY.

Tom Mix, the dare devil cowboy of the screen, in five reels of stunts and peppery action will be the attraction at the Butler today, in a play called "The Coming of the Law." This drams of life in the west is from an Associated Press member Syrus, according to Habib Lor's lab taken from the book by Charles Alien Seltzer. "The Coming of the Law" is a story of Dry Hottom New Mexico, to which town Mix New York. in the character of Kent Hollis comes to succeed his father, who was head of the Circle-Bar ranch. He finds his father has died; also finds that cattle rustlers are running the wn. Although Kent is a tenderfoot, he jumps in to clean up the town and bring law and order to the place-He does so many amazing things that the rustlers are beaten by astonishment rather than gun play. As usual, Mix does some stunts in this picture that take one's breath away. Added to the feature a Ford Educational Weekly and a Mutt & Jeff comedy Tomorrow, Louis Bennison, in "The Road Called Straight," and a Harold Lloyd comedy
